

Call for Applications

Junior Library Fellows of the Van Leer Jerusalem Institute

The Van Leer Jerusalem Institute is accepting applications for Junior Library Fellows. Students writing their PhD dissertations or those who have recently received their PhD are invited to join our community of scholars.

Junior Library Fellows will enjoy the benefits of the Library's interdisciplinary community of scholars and will have access to the Library's collection, which contains over 40,000 books and journals, primarily in the fields of philosophy, history, political science and religion.

Junior Library Fellows are expected to be at the library at least twice a week. Preference will be given to applicants in the Humanities and Social Sciences whose work is related to the Institute's research themes:

- Sacredness, Religion, and Secularization
- Science, Technology and Society
- Israel in the Middle East
- The Challenge of Living Together
- Feminism and Gender

Interested candidates should send a letter of introduction and their CV to Prof. Shai Lavi, Director, the Van Leer Jerusalem Institute, c/o Bayla Pasikov library3@vanleer.org.il.

The deadline for applications is Thursday, August 29th, 2024.

Kindly note in the subject line that you are applying as a Junior Library Fellow.